ABOUT

THOMAS J. NEWHOUSE bsd, idsa

For more than 35 years, Tom Newhouse has been designing furniture, lighting, appliances, and other products as the owner/principal of an industrial design consulting firm located in western Michigan. Prior to 1978, he was a member of the corporate design staff of Herman Miller, Inc. He holds a degree in industrial design from the University of Michigan.

Tom works primarily in the areas of home and office furniture, lighting, kitchen cabinetry, and major appliance design, with an emphasis on environmentally sustainable design practice. He currently holds over 90 design and utility patents. Tom lectures to professional design societies and universities internationally on the topic of environmentally sustainable design and his "Four Corners" design philosophy.

Tom's Tino articulating LED tasklight for Light Corporation was launched at Neocon 2015.

WMSBF Sustainable Business Hall of Fame Member Tom Newhouse

Tom was inducted into the WMSBF Business Hall of Fame in November 2015. This lifetime achievement award honors individual practitioners that have made the greatest contribution to sustainable business in West Michigan during their careers.

FOUR CORNERS DESIGN: Aesthetics. Products should be aesthetically appealing. Sustainability. Products should be durable, having the lowest possible environmental impact in their manufacture and use, and should include a roadmap for their re-use or recycling. Ergonomics. Products should be intuitively functional, ergonomic, and safe. Economy. Products should be cost-effective/affordable. www.thomasjnewhouse-design.com
